Join us for a special lunch and presentations by Indigenous language scholars

Indigenous Language is Life

A Focus on Revitalization, Sustainability, and Reclamation

Wednesday, November 6, 2019

12:00-12:30 PM: Lunch catered by Florence YePA
12:30-3:00 PM: Presentations in Auditorium

UNM Hibben Center

Dr. Keiki Kawai'ae'a
Director, Ka Haka 'Ula o Ke'elikolani College of Hawaiian Language
University of Hawai'i at Hilo

A passionate parent, grandparent, and educator who has played a pioneering role in the development of Hawaiian education, teacher education, and curriculum development.

Lorraine Begay Manavi
Assistant Professor, Navajo Language
San Juan College

One of the primary editors for the Rosetta Stone Navajo software development project. She is a member of the Navajo Language Renaissance, a non-profit organization working to revitalize the Navajo language.

Jaeci Hall
Ph.D. Student, Linguistics Department
University of Oregon

As a child of the 'lost generation' - those who lost their language and culture - Jaeci Hall has witnessed and participated in cultural reclamation her entire life.

For additional questions, contact Native American Studies, 505.277.3917

Sponsored by the UNM Navajo Language Program, the Native American Studies Department, and other co-sponsors